Just two round tables were needed to accommodate the roundtable attendees on July 1.

Eleven members enjoyed a great meal and conversations. Several were overheard explaining why they are lousy golfers.

From Prez. Jim:

Things to think about (to be discussed at a future meeting):

1. How do we get MORE members MORE involved?
2. How do we get the Kiwanis name out in front in the community?
3. How do we let people know what Kiwanis does in the community and worldwide?
4. Will YOU ask a prospective member to join Kiwanis before the end of September?

Ladies, you missed a great outing. Hope to see you there next year!

Dick Olson adds the following report:

Merlin Kanter delivered fantastic weather for our day of fun in the sun at the Evergreen Golf Course in Elkhorn. Members and guests enjoyed a great day on the course followed by a tasty grilled steak dinner. Following dinner, there were drawings for goodies generously donated by Janesville businesses and members. Merlin and Tom Waller were in a serious battle for the shortest drive. Speaking of short, Tom Waller was a little short of cash and had his guest bankroll him. It seems he forgot his wallet. Sure Tom, the old forgot the wallet trick.

Ed Pulliam wants to know if anyone took pictures at the outing. The more incriminating, the better. If you will share them with me, I'll get them in next week's newsletter.
