Announcements:

The Bloodmobile is returning to town August 9, 10, and 11th. It will be at St. Williams. Don't forget, if you have signed up. If you didn't sign up, just SHOW UP, and tell them to credit Kiwanis for your donation.

Meals On Wheels needs a Chairman for the upcoming volunteer weeks, Sept. 27 – Oct. 1 and Oct. 4 – 8. Irene Stewart needs to step down, as she will be recuperating from surgery at the time. We need a volunteer next week to organize this service project.

Fall Fest of Ale still has room for a couple more general sponsorships. If you or your employer would like to be credited as a sponsor of this event, contact Linda Bolin-Mellenburger 754-3986.

District Convention, Manitowoc, Aug. 27 & 28. Looks like the club might have a couple going. Contact Tom Waller at once if you would like to join them.

Board and Secretary positions open for next administrative year. With Will Parks departure, Ed Pulliam stepped in as acting secretary at the board's request. There will be a special election on August 19th to elect a new secretary for the 2004 – 2005 administrative year. Ed will be nominated for the position next week, and there will be an opportunity for nominations from the floor. Then on Aug. 19th there will be an election. Since Ed is a board member, should he be elected, that will leave the board one member short (secretary is automatically a voting member of the board, so we are actually one short with Will's departure). We will also accept nominations for the remainder of Ed's board term (ending Sept. 2006) next week, and vote on that also on Aug. 19th. (What happens to Ed if he's not elected secretary and someone else is elected to his board position? "I can live with that" is all Ed would say.)

Happy Dollars came from Jim Leeser who was thrilled that he was going to jail soon, thanks to another member. Floyd had a dollar for what he forgot to say. Pete Carman was "looking forward" to knee surgery, well, less and less each day. Terry Huseth was happy to be going on vacation to Montana, and happy that Judi was going with him. Judi had a happy dollar for the interclub she attended in Clinton, and the great program (but said nothing about being happy about vacationing with Terry). Ralph Berkan was happy to be back, and happy no "shots" were taken at him for being away so long. Ed Pulliam had a buck for being happy for the day when everyone would check themselves off on the attendance sheet. Harvey Miller was happy for a mail boat ride on Geneva Lake. Tom Waller was VERY happy that Floyd and Tom Weber agreed to fill in for the program on short notice.

ANOTHER WINNER!

Nancy Verhoven was as surprised as everyone else when she pulled the Ace of Hearts from an almost full deck. Nancy took $34.00 as her share in the 50/50 drawing.

We start over next week, if Ed remembers to buy a new deck of cards before the meeting.

Know Your Kiwanian filled the time slot for the MIA program. Tom Weber is a newer member. He works for Riverfront, Inc., a non-profit organization based in La Crosse. He works in Janesville one or two days per week. A UW La Crosse grad, Tom is married to Pam. They have three children, aged 5, 7 and 8,. He is a T-Ball coach for 5 year olds, and said that's quite a challenge. Hobbies include hunting, football and hiking.

Floyd Kowal joined the Navy after the marines rejected him (because some girl hit him in the eye with a rock (I'll bet there is more to this story). After the service, Floyd worked at GM in accounting for 8 years. He then started a little business called Modern Tile and Lumber (located next to some "slumlord property" as I recall). He started the business with $1,000 borrowed from a life insurance policy. He was in business for 42 years.
