Eric Johnson - Glen Erin Golf Course

PROGRAM: Erik Johnson, Head Golf Professional, of Glen Erin Golf Course was our program today.

Opening just this past June, the course offers an exciting 18 hole challenge to any golfer.

Erik highlighted some of the holes for us and also discussed the challenges in opening a new golf course. The lack of rain this summer made his job exceptionally difficult but he did receive a lot of positive feedback after they hosted the final round of the city golf tournament.

After enjoying the "Old World" charm of the course, golfers can enjoy a cool Irish draught inside the Cursing Stone Pub.

Drawing continues to climb

Attendance is on the rise as the Ace of Hearts drawing continues to increase. 46 members, guests and students were at today's meeting

GUESTS: Zack Gostwick was here for the last time as a guest. Zach will be inducted next week.

CRAIG KEY CLUB: Kimberly Clapper and Kaitlyn Jones visited our club today and also gave us information on their fundraising efforts. They are selling Christmas Wreaths to raise money for adopt-a-family and had order forms on hand. Deadline for ordering is October 31. You may contact Dave Wimann for more information or come to next week's meeting.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH: Matt Sonntag (l-r) and Amanda Stegeman of Craig and Emily Seiler and Adam Spaeth of Parker will be joining us this month. Be sure to introduce yourself to them and take a little time to learn about these fantastic young people.

ACE OF HEARTS DRAWING
Dr. Jack Damrow helped the money roll over once again as he drew the 10 of Diamonds. The ace of Hearts was verified to be in the deck. About $850 rolls on

SERVICE/FUNDRAISING:

• Fall Fest of Ale: Keep selling tickets! A worker sign up sheet is going around with 2 available shifts. 5-8pm and 7-10pm. Contact Stu Charland to sign up.

A ticket selling contest is ongoing with great prizes to top sellers. This is what will make or break our event!

• Meals On Wheels Irene Stewart thanked the many volunteers who helped with this important service project.

• The Member Directory will be updated this October. Photos will be taken at regular meetings and information updated including email addresses. If you can't make an October meeting, call Will at 755-8202 and let him know any changes to your contact information.

HAPPY DOLLARS:

John Hagen had $3. One as a thank you for being Kiwanian of the Year. 2- to serve our club for 6 years as secretary and 3 to be sitting amongst friends back in the peanut gallery. This was John's last meeting.

Dr. Jack Damrow corrected the bulletin from last week and verifying that George McRoberts is a little older than him.

Pastor Judi Huseth was happy to be at a meeting and that the drawing money rolled over.

Dave Wimann had a buck for the Craig Key Clubbers. George Mark was happy to report that Dick Seifkes is doing well in Florida and also had a buck for John Hagen.

Irene Stewart had a buck for Meals on Wheels volunteers. 15 drivers helped out.

Vern Fisher is happy to be a sponsor of the Fest-of-Ale and also happy about his opening a second office in Loves Park.

Dr. Jim Damrow had a buck for all the hard work being done on the Fest-of-Ale and recognized Linda, Stu and Will for their efforts. Also a happy dollar for John Hagen and his guidance during Jim's year as prez.
