Drawing continues to climb

Attendance is on the rise as the Ace of Hearts drawing continues to increase. 36 members, guests and students were at today's meeting

GUESTS: Mike Turdgeon, guest of new member Paul Carman. Denise Wimann, Craig Key Club advisor, guest of David Wimann.

PARKER KEY CLUB: Parker Key Clubbers joined us, in costume, to Trick or Treat for UNICEF. President Jessica Sullivan was joined by Emily Seiler, Saran Stienldock, Justin Kopet and Stephanie Dipiaea

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH: School was out today so no students were with us today.

ACE OF HEARTS DRAWING
George Smith pulled a 4 of something. Notes were missed. Sorry. Good news is that a bunch of money rolled over to next week!

SERVICE/FUNDRAISING:

- Fall Fest of Ale: By the time you get this newsletter, it'll be over so look for the good news later.
- Kiwaniis Christmas Party will be January 15th at the Fireside. Plan to arrive at 6:00 PM, dinner at 6:30 PM, the play, I Do, I Do will be at 8:30 PM. Cost will be about $58.00 per person. Sign up is going around.
- Bingo at Rock Haven - Judi Huseth reminded the club that our next Bingo date at Rock Haven is November 13th. Still time to sign up. Judi needs the help, as she will be out of town.

Please remember -

Charles Weber, longtime club member, who just had surgery in FL. Also, Steve Rassmussen, who has been back in, and now out of the hospital. We sent around a placemat to wish Steve a speedy recovery.

• The Member Directory will be updated this October. Photos will be taken at regular meetings and information updated including email addresses. If you can't make an October meeting, call Will at 755-8202 and let him know any changes to your contact information.

HAPPY DOLLARS:

None were tracked this week. Sorry about that.

Know Your Kiwanian -

Jim Holmstrom introduced himself to the club today. I Didn't know that Jim was a "farm boy". He attended Southern Illinois University, graduating with a major in Animal Science. How that translated into a career in investments, he wasn't able to explain. Jim worked for Edward Jones, then Invest at Johnson Bank, and is now with A G Edwards. Jim has been married to Deb for 27 years, and they have three children.
