Program: Myra Kobbs, Hospice Care, Inc.

Myra returned to us (after being bumped twice from her scheduled program time) to update us about the wonderful things Hospice Care does for the terminally ill and their families. Usual patients have a terminal diagnosis, six months or less, upon referral from a physician. Dr. Frank Brodkey serves as the medical director with Hospice Care.

The word hospice literally means "a warm bed for a weary traveler". They take volunteers who can do anything from cut grass and shovel snow to being with the families. They also have a wonderful bereavement program for aftercare, and a family doesn't necessarily have to be a Hospice Care patient to receive this service.

Guests:

1. Only one today, little Sarah Waller, 3, who "dressed up pretty" for Kiwanis today. Mom and big brother were at school registration today.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Andy Frelich kept the pot going with drawing the 5 of clubs.

Announcements:

1. Meals on Wheels: Fill-in chair Dave Calverly passed around the sign up sheet for our two fall weeks—Sep 27 and October 4. We need volunteers to fill on our routes E through H. If you can't commit to a whole week you can do it by the day.
2. Induction Banquet: will be held at the Country Club on October 7. Menu is being finalized and sign up will start soon.

Happy Dollars:

1. Randy Borman was very happy, 5 dollars worth for son John who is recovering well from wounds suffered in Iraq, and 5 more dollars (his last 5) for his youngest daughter who was married last weekend.
2. Don Chapin was happy to report that John Hagen stopped by for a visit and is looking well.
3. Andy Frelich had 5 happy dollars, one because Virg Wallen has been retired 8 years which means Andy has had the store that long and has finally paid him off, two for going to the convention this coming weekend, three for a letter he got from Jessica who reports from the Marines, and I missed the last two because Angela Bernhardt stole my pen from me while I was writing this down!.
4. Jim Damrow was happy to have is 20 year class reunion this past weekend at Gray Brewery, and reports a success. Fred did not run out of beer.
