Jim Leeser presides over his last weekly meeting as president

Program: Stuck In Traffic

Our program was stuck in the highway construction zone traffic around Chicago, so members had some extra time to converse around the tables at our final meeting of the 2003 - 2004 administrative year.

Guests:

1. Eric Peterson, a former member of our club has moved back to Janesville, and has submitted an application to rejoin our club
2. Key Club: We welcomed three members from Parker Key Club. Sophomores Amanda Guyan, Amy Gunn and Thyra Brudos.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Dave O'Leary drew an ace, but not the right one, so the pot of $154.00 rolls over. Next drawing in TWO weeks, due to the Installation Banquet next week.

Announcements:

1. The Installation Banquet sign up sheet was passed around for the final time today. If you haven't signed up, and would like to attend, call Jim Leeser at 752-3449 by Monday, Oct. 4. Social Hour at 5:30 PM, Dinner at 6:30 PM with the program following. It all happens next Thursday, Oct 7, at the Janesville Country Club. There will be a roundtable at the Elks at noon for those unable to attend the Banquet.
2. Linda Bolin-Mellenburger reported that Fest of Ale tickets are selling well. She is out of tickets to sell, so if you have some that you are not going to sell, please get them back to her.
3. Linda reported that David O'Leary was the top ticket salesman this week. Dave got a whole bunch of neat prizes, but he was seen clutching the assorted six pack of beer tightly. Our illustrious DA was overheard explaining, "When you threaten people with jail time, they'll buy anything you are selling".

4. Robbi Seales continues to be the overall sales champ. She's well on her way to selling $1,000.00 in tickets!
5. A sign-up sheet for working at Fest of Ale is being passed around at meetings. We need about 50 volunteers, and spouses are much appreciated, so sign 'em up, and then break the news to them that they are working.

Happy Dollars:

1. There were five dollars in the box, but your reporter only got three comments.
2. Ed Pulliam was happy to apologize for yelling at the members about not checking their names off on the attendance sheet a couple of weeks ago, only to have Kevin Apfel point out that it was the entire front table that hadn't checked themselves off.
3. Andy Frelich reported on Virg Wallen, who had two heart valves worked on at a Madison hospital, and spent 15 days there. He is now at Mercy, and doing fairly well. We sent around a place mat for Virg to wish him a speedy recovery.
4. Pete Carman said he would have more happy dollars to contribute if someone would buy his house.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS:

- 10/7 - Round Table - Installation at JCC
- 10/14 - TBA
- 10/21 - Member Lon Haenel of the Jotter
- 10/28 - New member induction

Thank you to Ed Pulliam for take meeting notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
