Program: Brian Helbing, Secret Service & Counterfeiting

Secret Service Agent Brian Helbing talked about how to recognize counterfeit money today. Samples were passed around and hopefully returned. Brian works out of Milwaukee and in addition to working on counterfeiting, he investigates internet scams and identity theft. Prior to Milwaukee, Brian worked at the Whitehouse, was part of Candidate George W. Bush's protection team in California, and worked at President Reagan's funeral.

Dr. Jack had a question about employment with the Secret Service. Several of us wondered if he was planning a second career.

Guests:

1. Mark Heffel will be inducted on the 24th but Ed wants to count today as a member to get the lunch money(Phew!! Ed- You should have been a banker)
2. Chad Herbert of Constituent Services for Congressman Ryan.

Happy Dollars:

1. Secretary Ed was happy that Dale Henning seems to behave better when Doris is with him. Dale thought this meeting was a fine Valentine dinner for Doris.
2. Eric Garvin's daughter is 8 years old. Every 4th year the birthday is celebrated to a larger extent including a public announcement. I think Eric said something about saving $ by announcing at a K meeting. Dale and Eric are big spenders.
