Program: Dan Hunter, Janesville Country Club

Dan Hunter from the Janesville Country Club provided a tasty program on how to select and taste wine. For those interested, he suggested we try try try different wines and we did did did today.

Guests:

1. Prez Tom introduced Heather Walz as a guest. Ed, the miserly Secretary, reminded Tom that Heather's membership was approved by the Board of Directors and there is no free lunch. Maybe Tom should be billed for Heather's lunch this week.
2. Mary Ann Warden was with us today as a guest of Michelle Jones.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Terry Huseth (again!) drew the 7 of Hearts and $82.00 rolls over to next week.

Announcements:

1. Dave Green, Harvey Miller, Ben Coopman, and Floyd Kowal attended an inter-club in Elkhorn on March 14th.
2. Bingo at Rock Haven. Club participants included George Smith, Jom Holmstrom, Bob Elliott, Merlin Kanter, George McRoberts, Dr. Kevin O'Leary, Jim Leeser and Dr. Jack Damrow. 26 residents enjoyed Bingo.
3. Terry Huseth subbed for his better half and let us know there is a blood drive in two weeks at Faith Lutheran. A sign up sheet will be going around next week or please contact Pastor Judi.
4. The Roosevelt K Kids will have their Charter breakfast on March 18th.
5. George Mark noted the K Bowling Tournament will be on April 9th in Fon Du Lac.

Happy Dollars:

1. Kevin O'Leary was happy he is full of Blarney. He was also happy one of his children misunderstood what was said by a teacher. Kevin was concerned a curse word was being taught in the classroom. This begs the question of how the dear child recognized or connected the curse to what the teacher said. Kevin should explain that one.

2. Tom Waller was happy to announce his family is taking some R&R in Florida for the next two weeks.
3. George Mark took the opportunity to give recognition to Floyd Kowal for many years of service on the County Board.
4. Steve Ripsch was happy that his son was accepted for a PHD Program at Loyola University.
5. Linda Bolin was glad Robbie Seales was able to make the meeting. Robbie mentioned she is a new grandma. (could that be?)
6. Eric Garvin was happy he could celebrate St. Patrick's today starting at 4:00 and ending at ?.

Election Results:

Linda Bolin, by unanimous decision, is our newest Board member and is a great addition.
