Program: Nadene Isackson, 'My Wishes Be Done' Program By Enroute Music

Enroute Music put on a musical performance geared toward elementary school students about the awful effects of smoking. When they are at schools, they try very hard to get the kids to participate. It was no different at our meeting! Initially they had limited success, but after some prodding, they got almost 100% participation from our members and guests (not without some moaning and complaining from a certain owner of a print shop!) "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Smoke" was the name of one of their songs ... same tune, different words. Dr. Kevin O'Leary and Lt. Gov Marcia Lee were asked to come up to the front. Dr. Kevin was the boy who decided to start smoking at age 12 (in the story, not really) Marcia did not, but decided to save the money she would have spent on cigarettes. When they both turned 16, Dr. Kevin got several nice gifts like B.O., yellow teeth, and bad breath. Marcia broke open her piggy bank to find $4000.00 waiting for her. Dr. Kevin was noticeably upset. That is what happens when you make bad choices, Kevin.

Guests:

1. Pending new member Brian Connors was here as Floyd Kowal's guest again today
2. Marcia Lee, Our Lt. Gov.
3. Students of the Month: Kevin Schmidt and Sarah Hamilton from Craig, and Eric Geines and Britten Grafft from Parker.
4. Key Club: John Kramer and Jean Pavlon from Parker Key Club

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Dr. Jason Stuckey was lucky enough to have his number drawn, however, his luck ran out when he drew the Jack of Diamonds! $290.00 rolls over to next week.

Announcements:

1. We sang happy birthday to all the members with May birthdays, and there were quite a few.
2. Clergy appreciation day is next week, May 26th. Please feel free to personally invite your clergy to our meeting as we appreciate them.
3. Merlin did not have the golf outing sign up today, but mentioned if you are not on it and want to be, let him know. It is on June 9th at Glen Erin, which is coming up fast.
4. Jim Leeser mentioned that the charter breakfast for the Madison school K-Kids Club will be Monday May 23rd from 7:30 to 8:00 AM. Try to make it if you can.
5. Our esteemed Lt. Governor was in attendance today because Pres. Tom forgot to tell her that our board meeting time this month was changed. <oops!> She gave us several updates on what is happening in the District, not least of which, was that our club has already qualified as a distinguished club ... the first one so far in our division! Thanks to everyone for helping make that happen!

Happy Dollars:

Thank you to Tom Waller and Ed Pulliam for taking meeting notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.

1. Jim Holmstrom was happy today because he saw Andy's picture in the most recent KiwaNews. Andy is a District Foundation board member, and was at the most recent meeting. <Jim, we are all proud that you read the KiwaNews!>
2. George Mark asked all the birthday boys and girls to stand ... there were two at the meeting today (and about 10 overall!)
3. Eric Garvin gave a happy dollar for the upcoming Armed Forces Day, on May 21, 2005. Thanks to all who are or have served their country.
4. Pres-Elect Dr. Kevin O'leary was very happy to have two programs show up today. After much negotiation, one of them agreed to come back another day soon. Fortunately, she stayed for lunch ... I am sure that will be billed to Kevin. (secretary says, "you bet it will"!)!
