Ken Seville from Camp Wawbeek narrated a slide show about our wonderful Easter Seals camp near the Dells. It is heavily supported by Kiwanis. Camp Wawbeek has served people with disabilities for nearly 70 years. Children and adults with muscular dystrophy, MS, cerebral palsy, and other ailments are all welcomed and treated to a week of swimming, hiking, creating, dancing, and relaxing. Kiwanis has provided much support over the years in 'camperships' and many structural projects on the grounds. It is always good to get an update on this great campground.

Guests:

Steven Sedwick, of Parker Key Club.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Dale Henning made it exciting by drawing a high heart, but alas it was the King, so about $300 rolls over.

Happy Dollars:

Kevin O' Leary was happy that he finally listened to his chiropractor's advice: he bought himself a body ball to help keep his back limber. Said chiropractor wasn't so happy that Kevin won't be the frequent visitor that he was.

Jim Holmstrom was happy for George Smith, who just got back from New Orleans to assist the police department down there.

Tom Waller was happy because he thought this was his last meeting as president, but he found out he actually has one more. Sorry Tom.

Fest of Ale Quote of the Week:

"All the fat guys watch me and say to their wives, 'See, there's a fat guy doing okay. Bring me another beer.'"

-Mickey Lolich

Announcements:

Please log onto our website and take the survey. <http://janesvillekiwanis.org/survey.htm>

Help is still needed on the second shift. If some of you who signed up for the first shift are willing, you can work the whole night. It goes pretty quick.

If you would like to order a red Fest of Ale polo shirt (the same one we have been using the first two years) sign up at the meeting or let Jim Damrow know at 754-3696 before October 13. Cost is approximately $22, final cost not yet set.

A press release will be distributed to all news media on October 1. Please watch for any news coverage generated by the Fest.

ALL TICKETS HAVE BEEN DISBURSED!!! If you have taken tickets that you might not end up selling, please get them back in ASAP as demand will be very tight.

Installation Dinner

Plan to attend at the Country Club on Thursday October 13. If you are coming and haven't signed up, please let the club secretary know. Prime rib, chicken, or a vegetarian plate are the choices. This is a very nice evening. The club will only offer round table at noon.

Bingo

Scheduled for the same night as the Installation Dinner (Oct. 13), so if you aren't coming to installation please consider working at Bingo that night.

Thank you to Dr. Jim Damrow for taking meeting notes and Ed Pulliam for photography. Members with information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
