The Janesville Noon Lions Club hosted other local service clubs Tuesday at the Elks Club. We all enjoyed a great meal, and the company of members of the other service minded clubs.

After the meal, each of the club Presidents spoke for a few minutes about their service projects. Dr. Kevin O'Leary did a good job of representing the activities in which we are involved.

Our own Ben Coopman won the meeting's 50/50 drawing. (We'll expect a happy dollar or two out of Ben next week).

THE PROGRAM

Steve King, President and CEO, Tomah Products, Milton WI

Mr. King is a very accomplished speaker. His talk asked the question, "Who's writing the history of Good"?

The answer was, "Each of us".

He said that the History of Good is certainly not being written by the media, as bad news gets the front page, and the biggest headlines.

He encouraged all service club members to keep up the good work that we do, and to acknowledge the good works of our fellow men and women.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

December 22 – Induction of New Members, and other club business.

December 29 -- CASA of Rock County.

CASA is an acronym for Court Appointed Special Advocates and is an agency whose mission statement is to have community volunteers who are advocates for abused children.

One or two slots still open for Salvation Army bell ringing, Friday, December 16th. Call Dr. Jim Damrow at 754-3696.

Still in need of volunteer tour guides for the Holiday Tour of Lights, Monday, Dec. 19th. Call Bob Elliott at 756-1303 if you can help.

Thank's to Ed Pulliam for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
