Sweetheart's Day

The following sweethearts were in attendance today:

Terry Huseth-sweetheart of Pastor Judi Claire Damrow-honey of Jack, Doris Henning-pookeybear of Dale, Michelle Hengen-'chick' of Andy Frelich, Linnae Shear-snookums of potential new member Andy Ellis (see below)

Other guests: Van Deng, guest of Shannon Aherens, Andy Ellis, guest and grandson of Jack Damrow, who is filling out a new member application.

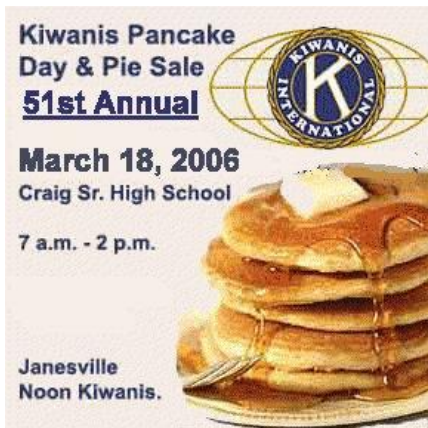

Key Club: Nate Burt and Jennifer Johnson.

Students of the Month: Andrew Leigfrid and Kelsey Fraser from Craig, and Steve Feeny and Monica Strunz from Parker.

Announcements:

Scholarship time: If anyone has kids/grandkids who are seniors at Craig/Parker, could you let Kevin O'Leary or Bob Elliott know ASAP?

Golden K: Jack Damrow could use some help Wednesday morning February 15 at the Sons of Norway, both for First Year Parenting Newsletter and to sell those old guys some Pancake Day tickets.

Speaking of Pancake Day, the placemat sales are on and going well, a nice head start this year. If you have not received any businesses to call on, or could take on a few extra, please let Andy Frelich or Jim Damrow know.

Pancake Day is March 18, and posters are available to hang at your place of business or your neighbors, pick them up at the meeting or at Budget Print Center.

Ace of Hearts: Brian Connors had the winning ticket, but not the winning card so $667 rolls over.

Happy Dollars: Terry Huseth was happy to be back among us, now that he is a 'FIB'(his word).

Jack Damrow was happy to have his grandson Andy joining the club.

Dave Wiman was tempted at a 50/50 raffle for Craig Wrestling, but he was happy the guy who had the winning ticket donated it back to the club.

Program: FOG—barbershop quartet

We were treated to a delightful concert by FOG—which stands for "Four Other Guys". The also originally were going to have it stand for "Four Old Goats" but one of them was too young to qualify for that name.

These were local men from Beloit, Janesville, Milton, and Whitewater, and they were absolutely wonderful to listen to this Valentine's season. Thank you to Pastor Judi for putting together such a nice meeting for Sweethearts Day.

Thanks to Dr. Jim Damrow for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
