Guests: Prospective member Andy Ellis, guest of the club for the last time, because his membership application was approved at the board meeting following the weekly club meeting..

Key Club: We had some. Unfortunately, the newsletter reporters count on the secretary to get their names right, (from the roll sheet). Since he wasn't there this week, and doesn't yet have the roll sheet, you'll have to wait 'til next week to find out who they were.

Students of the Month: Shamie Lazor and Steve Schendt from Craig.

Announcements:

Please let Kevin know if you have graduating seniors for scholarships

We need a new chairperson for Fest of Ale as Linda is stepping down

First Year Parenting Newsletter next Wednesday at Golden K

Pancake Day on Saturday - Wear your fest of Ale shirts to cross sell

The Bloodmobile will be here 3/27/06 - 3/29/06. Please consider signing up to donate blood.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Jason Stuckey drew the 9 of Clubs Pot is now at $800 +

Happy Dollars:

Jim Damrow - same name as new member Mark James (he is James Mark)

Class of 1984

Thanks to Andy Froelich and Jim Stoa for all the time and energy they put in to make pancake day a success

Randy Borman - is soon to be a grandfather again

Jayme Roth - happy that the board approved her

Pastor Judi Huseth - accepted a position as pastor in Sterling IL, also that she and Pres Kevin are both at the same meeting

Tom Waller - vacationed in Mexico south of Cancun

Dave Weimer - Happy that Shamy (student) was class president (and also did something else but I missed it)

Jim Leeser - To announce that Wilson K-kids will have their first meeting on Monday, March 20, from 3-4 PM, in Family Resource Room off Cafeteria.....Also, on Tues--21st, at Madison

Elementary, 7:40---8:15 AM in Room 404. It would be most appreciated if some of our members could be at each of these meetings to support the sponsored youth clubs. Our obligations don't stop once the clubs are chartered.

Vanburen elementary will turn in an application for our fourth K-Kids Club in the Janesville School District.

Our Program:

Induction of New Members

Program - the program was devoted to an Induction of 2 new members:

Jamie Roth is office manager for the Janesville visitors and convention bureau.

Mark James is vice president of Chase Bank

Thanks to Jim Holmstrom for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
