Happy Dollars: Andy Frelich was happy to have his girlfriend Michelle back with him today, was happy for the pond clean up last week, and a dollar for the late George McRoberts.

Bob Elliott reminded the club about our scholarship program which will give scholarships to Craig and Parker students in the next couple of weeks.

Our Program:

Karen Chingono of Zimbabwe came and talked to us today about her country. She is an exchange student at Craig High School. Zimbabwe, formerly known as Rhodesia, is a country in Africa which boasts the highest literacy rate in that continent. (90%). The main employer is the agriculture industry. HIV is a major problem, over 3000/week dying of the disease. However, the infection rate is decreasing as HIV awareness is increasing. Karen goes to St. John's High School, a catholic school that is "a lot harder" than school here. No one kisses in the halls of her school like they do here.

Thanks to Dr. Jim Damrow for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
