Ed also reported that there is a new member's only section of our web site. There is a link at the bottom of the home page at janesvillekiwanis.org. You will be asked for your user name and password. It's easy, if you learned the descriptive phrase that Past Prez. Dr. Kevin tried to teach us all last year. (It's printed at the bottom of this newsletter).

User name: 1child

Password: 1community

Member phone list will be available with password, as will access to various sign up sheets, and a form to sign up online for various Kiwanis events.

Thanks to David O'Leary for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email
