Attendance Roundtable:

18 including Honorary Member /Past Lt. Governor Rollie Strommen (who said he was making his semi-annual visit to keep us in line).

Students of the Month:

Laura Neuenschwander and Jerred Lassiter of Parker, and Ginny Dorscheid of Craig.

Parker Key Club:

Was represented by Ashley Ramthun and Megan Olin.

Notes:

With a total attendance of 23, the Elks staff did a super job of accommodating us. Your Secretary had told them it would be a roundtable, and they had planned for about a dozen. That's twice in a month we have surprised them. The Wednesday before Thanksgiving they planned for a regular meeting, and seven showed up.

Thursday, Dec. 21, we will "pass the basket" to give the Elk's staff a little something extra they say thanks for all the great service they provide to us.

Holiday Social: "The Christmas Schooner" at the Armory

Twenty one Kiwanians and guests enjoyed good food and great entertainment at the Armory's presentation of "Christmas Schooner".

If you haven't attended a production at the Armory, you really owe it to yourself to go.

Their next production is "Grease", beginning Jan. 25, and running through April 1.

Thanks to Ed Pulliam for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time.
