Announcements:

President Dave reminded the members of the upcoming region's District Governor's Banquet to be held in Middleton and the K-University training day to be held in Stevens Point., both in February.

Help is still needed with staffing a pancake breakfast hosted by the K-Kids of Wilson Elementary School on February 10th.

Ace of Hearts Drawing:

Andy won the drawing, but could only muster pulling the ten of hearts.

Happy Dollars:

Andy was happy there were so many club members taking care of him and signing him up for all the trips, trainings and service projects.

Dr. Kevin was glad for new guidance about what is proper attire and etiquette on after dark bio-breaks.

Dave O'Leary was glad he had a good Friday last week when Tom Waller called just to ask if Dave had time to talk about the Fest of Ale.

Dr. Jack Damrow was glad for Dave's patience in these stressful last few days of tough cases of violence.

Dr. Jim Damrow's picture in the Gazette as an alum of St. Mary's School was a welcome site for Harvey Miller.

A sad essay about Chicago Bear fans made Dr. Jim's day happy. A chuckle was had by all.

Program: Past President Dr. Kevin O'Leary and our own Lt. Governor, Tom Waller, held a club building meeting.

They relayed some interesting facts and figures they learned at a training they attended recently in Barneveld at one of the District Trustee's home.

Our Janesville Club ranks in the top 10% of all clubs in the District for amount of money raised and spent on service projects in the community. We handle approximately $25,000 annually.

They reviewed some thought provoking questions: Why did you join Kiwanis? Answers included being with good people, I was invited to join, I liked the organization and the camaraderie of this club to they needed a new treasurer.

Another tough question asked was: Why should we “grow” our Kiwanis Club? The group of folks in attendance was then asked to complete a club inventory. Members were asked their opinion on the club's activities, priorities and future direction. Copies for those not in attendance, who wish one, can be obtained from either of the presenters or Ed Pulliam.

Wrap-up: President Dave thanked the program presenters for their willingness to travel to the initial training and then following this day of information gathering up with analysis. This will be considered by the Board of Directors as it sets its agenda for the year.

Upcoming Programs

2-1-07 - Jim McMullen and others on KANDU INDUSTRIES

2-8-07 - Kevin Apfel, Adoption Experiences

Dave also reported that the appearance of former UW Athletic Director, Pat Richter, has been confirmed as a program on February 15, 2007.

Thanks to Ben Coopman for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
