HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES DALE HALVERSON

Opening:

President Dave Wimann was volunteering at a Wilson Elementary School awards luncheon. President Elect, Harvey Miller presided over the meeting.

Parker High School Student of the Month, Elliott Little, led and accompanied the singing of our opening song.

Students of the month:

Hallie Mosblack of Craig and Elliott Little of Parker

Key Club Attendees:

Juelle Sullivan, Sammy Pul and Nick Rebut (Sorry if I got the names wrong. Nick gets an A in penmanship. The others, not so high a score).

Reports:

Nancy Verhoeven reported on the Mother's Day Breakfast held last Saturday at the Elk's Club. This was the 62nd annual event and was attended by approximately 175 women. The Golden Strings Youth Orchestra presented their outstanding, wandering minstrel show. Tim Beggs of WJVL radio, was the Master of Ceremonies with Assemblyman Mike Sheridan as the keynote speaker. Nancy was the "team captain" of her own three generation team of her granddaughter, daughter and herself.

50-50 Raffle:

Ben Coopman won the drawing, and drew a three of diamonds. Treasurer Eric promises to put the Ace back into the deck once there are about three more drawings.

Happy Dollars:

Kevin O'Leary was sorry he had to leave the Mother's Day Breakfast early. Ed Pulliam was glad that Pastor Dale Halverson is married for 37 years, to the same woman (this is only funny if you know that Ed can't string together more than 10 years per wife).

Program:

In light of a program, we had a Know Your Kiwanian Moment. The featured speaker was Pastor Dale. He was born in Minnesota and then later in life went to Luther College in Iowa. After graduating seminary, he was assigned to a "four-point" assignment. He served four services in two congregations, depending on the weekend. Eventually, he was called to form a new congregation in Fargo, N.D. That church stands today and is similar to the architecture of a Pizza Hut.

Pastor Dale is at Faith Lutheran Church here in Janesville. Besides being married 37 years, he and his wife have three children and four grandchildren.

His Kiwanis Moment was from Fesiden, N.D. where he and three other pastors teamed up to perform a barbershop quartet act.

Closing: Guest, Elliott Little performed a Beatles tune.

Thanks to Ben Coopman for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time.
