May 31 -

Guests:

We welcomed our sponsored youth faculty advisors. With us were Denise Wimann (Craig Key Club), Melissa Lantz, Jackie Auzolla and Hollie Marshall (Madison K-Kids) and Stacy Nemetz (Parker Key Club). Each gave a brief overview of activities their clubs had participated in this school year.

Sue McGinnen of Hospice Care was a guest of co-worker Jayme Roth.

Students of the Month: Elliott Little from Parker

Ace of Hearts 50/50 Drawing: GM (George Mark) evidently drew the wrong card, as he tore it up before anyone could see.

Happy $ : David O'Leary was happy that our Student of the Month, Elliot Little, led us in our opening song today, and commented on the starting pitch.

Dr. Kevin O'Leary blew the whistle on brother David who used the "H" word in his happy dollar declaration. David relieved our concerns by explaining that the word was used to motivate.

Prez Elect Harvey (I think) was happy for our own Dave Fleig who was the local celebrity golfer recently. Dave's score of 75 was sure to be hard to beat.

Each of our K-Kids/Key Club Advisors in attendance today were happy for different things: 1-for the one hour lunch, 2-the air conditioned lunch, 3-only 6 more days of school left, and 4-all of the above.

June 7 – Roundtable

Nothing to report. All non golfers were well behaved.

June 14 -

Guests: None

Announcements:

Golf outing results reported – O'Leary, Schomber and O'Leary had the Low Score. George Mark claimed he had the high score (and he thought that made him the big winner – Golf much, George?).

Andy Frelich announced that with only about four volunteers, the flowers at Kiwanis Park got planted.

A yearbook showing their activities, from the Wilson School K-Kids was passed around.

Tallman Fest is August 5th. We will be working with the Golden K, at the Pie/Cake/Ice Cream tent. The signup sheet has started circulating.

Ace of Hearts: Andy Frelich drew the QUEEN of Hearts. Sorry Andy, we were looking for the Ace. The pot of $426.00 rolls over, with 25 cards remaining.

Happy $ : Pastor Dale Halverson had a mixed emotions dollar to announce that, after 36 years of full time ministry, he has resigned, and after regrouping, will be looking for a part time ministry.

Don Chapin, for those that made the flower planting, as he couldn't be there this year.

Ryan Schomber had a dollar for his 2 year old's birthday.

Program: Ron DelCiello, presented the "House of Mercy Story". From August 1996 through December 2006, the House of Mercy provided shelter and support to over 3,272 individuals. 47 percent of these individuals were children.

In 2006, 323 individuals stayed at the House of Mercy.

The Center is usually filled to capacity, with a waiting list.

Thanks to Tom Waller and Ed Pulliam for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time.
