Fest of Ale Recap and the Program for Programs

Announcements:

-Ed said that some of the staff at the Elks Club are holding a benefit on Dec 16th from 1-5 pm. for one of their staff members, Missy McDermott, who is a single mom and recently had a severe car accident. Any donations or gifts are welcome.

-Next week's meeting will be a round table on Wednesday, Nov. 21.

"Don't sell one more ticket next year," says Ed

Not Kevin's usual work clothes.

-Dave O'Leary said that for the first time at the Holiday Inn, the Fest of Ale went better than expected. As always, there are things to improve upon. Please feel free to email Dave about any suggestions you may have for next year.

-Next board meeting will be on the 29th of November

George Mark – 8 of diamonds -- and the pot rolls over.

Happy Dollars:

-Dr. Ryan Van Roo announced his wife had a baby girl on October 19th. She was 8 lbs. 8 oz., was 21 ½ inches. Both baby and mom are doing great.

-Dave O'Leary was happy the Fest of Ale was such a big hit again this year.

-Harvey Miller was happy to see the Parks family back in town

-Dave Wimann says he has the best smelling van in town after taking a potty break . . . you really had to be there to hear him tell it.

The Show:

The Janesville Fire Department was to be our program for the day, but they had a good excuse for not attending. They were on a fire call.

We used the time to discuss what went right, and where we need to improve on Fest of Ale at our larger venue. The response was overwhelmingly positive.

President – Elect Ben Coopman took a few moments to encourage members to become more involved in securing programs for our meetings.

This would be beneficial for the club for several reasons including that we would have more diverse speakers and could help with attendance as well.

More details will be forthcoming, but in the mean time, anyone with program ideas can contact Ben. His office number is 757-5450.

Thanks to Dr. Ryan Van Roo for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
