Guests:

Dave Calverley brought his son Dan and daughter Ann as his guests.

Announcements:

Dr. Kevin O'Leary announced he was informed by Bob Elliott that he (Dr. Kevin) was going to be the new Scholarship chair for the club.

Who knew that all you had to do to get out of a job after many years was make a phone call!

Thanks to Bob for all the effort he has put in to this project for many years.

Prez. Harvey announced a training session for officers and members to be held in Baraboo on Jan. 19, 2008.

We need a new Human & Spiritual Values Chair. Contact Prez. Harvey if you are interested.

Feb. 22 – 24 is the Mid-Winter Conference in Green Bay at the Regency Suites. Registration forms are available on the club website members only section.

New Member Induction:

Rob Terry, Manager of the East Milwaukee St. Sentry Foods store was inducted as our newest member. Rob is sponsored by Dave Calverley.

Ace pot drawing:

Don Chapin drew the 10 of Clubs. The pot roles over. $116.00 is now in the pot.

Happy Dollars:

George Mark – for Ben Coopman for knowing how to handle snow removal, and also for the good experiences had working Christmas Eve at the homeless shelter at his church.

Dave Wimann – Enjoyed himself on the tour of lights. Also happy he did not lead singing on the bus.

Don Chapin – to remind everyone to sign Spencer Potter's nomination papers for City Council.

George Mark – (Who has already filed his papers) reminds everyone that election day will be April Fools Day.

Rob Terry is happy to be a Kiwanian again, and also that his daughter passed her driving test.

Ben Coopman was happy to have survived the Stan Milam radio show.

A Quick Membership Minute:

Ben Coopman and Dave Green ready their paper airplanes for a contest to illustrate the point that to meet our club's goals for membership growth we have to think of how we grow our club in new ways.

Dr. Kevin O'Leary lead this quick demonstration which he had learned at the July Kiwanis International convention in San Antonio.

Thanks to Jim Holmstrom for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
