February 14, 2008, Vol. XXVI, No.20

Project Vote Smart

Students:

Craig: Traci Hanson
Parker: Laura Johnson

Announcements:

Mother's Day Breakfast to be held 5/10/08 at the Elk's Club!

Kiwanis Annual Pancake Breakfast to be held 4/12/08 at First Lutheran Church (near the fairgrounds).

Midwinter Conference will be held February 22-24. If interested call Ed Pulliam, 752-8985 for more information.

Ace pot drawing:

George Mark (does he always have the winning ticket?) drew something red.... $186 pot rolls over!

Happy Dollars:

Ed happy about Brian leading the singing!

George happy that he attended Blackhawk Golden K club meeting and that the Kiwanis student of the month had a picture in the paper for winning a wrestling championship.

Andy happy that he only had to spend one dollar this valentine's day!

Jim Damrow was happy that he was recognized by Forward Janesville at their dinner at the new Pontiac Convention center.

Harvey happy that a co-worker was taking the polar plunge!

Songs:

Brian Hanson returned to lead us in song. Group consensus was that we have him record some songs so we can have him lead us in future meetings even if he is unable to attend!

Guest speaker:

Maribel Deming spoke about the rights of voters to have reliable and detailed information about the people running for office.

Project Vote Smart is a nonprofit venture started with the goal of presenting facts to people to protect democracy from misinformation. They work with volunteers and do not accept money from special interest groups. Their website can be found at www.votesmart.org

The information presented on each candidate focuses on six areas: (1) Biography of candidate; (2) Issue positions of candidate; (3) Voting record of candidate; (4) Campaign financing for candidate; (5) special interest groups rating of candidate; and (6) speeches and public statements by candidate.

They ask "no nonsense" questions of the candidates and provide the answers to the public.

Next Week: Feb. 21 Gail Graham - United Way of North Rock Co.

Thanks to David O'Leary for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
