50/50 drawing:

Dale Henning drew 8 of clubs... pot rolls over! Pot is now at $236.00, with 33 cards remaining in the deck

Happy dollars:

Jayme Roth – announcing HospiceCare's Sips and Sounds event on Friday, March 7, 2008, at Old Towne Mall

Dave Wimann – happy DA O'Leary had the sense to throw out the case of the salt stealing man (who was born in 1912 and was not happy with how the County had plowed his street so he was going to salt it himself – DA agreed with him!).

George Mark – stayed overnight at his Parrish helping the homeless; meals on wheels event; and rambled on and on about the Wisconsin Badger's men's BB team (and yet only gave ONE DOLLAR!)

Mila Holcombe – happy to be here!

Program:

Mila Holcombe spoke about Janesville Area Special Olympics which has 161 athletes, hosts 5 sports and has over 70 volunteers!

They support year-round activities for individuals 8 years old and older with cognitive disabilities.

They are hosting their first annual chili extravaganza fundraiser on April 19, 2008 at the UAW Hall in Janesville. All money raised will stay in Janesville to help support Special Olympics. If interested, see their web site: www.jvlchilix.org

In an informal vote after the program, Kiwanis members in attendance advised the club's board to approve a sponsorship for the Chili Extravaganza.

Thanks to David O'Leary for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
