HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES

* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

April 10, 2008, Vol. XXVI, No.28

Ed Pulliam talks about himself

Guests: 3 members of the Beloit Noon Club – Marilyn Harris, Debra Ovist, & Larry Kane.

Students of the Month: Emily Muhs & Ian Johnson from Craig High School and Alex Benedict from Parker

Announcements: Our annual Kiwanis Pancake Day is this coming Saturday, April 12.

Turn in any money you have collected soon. The set-up for the event starts at 3 pm on Friday afternoon at First Lutheran Church.

50/50 drawing: Green drew this week's card, but no luck. The pot grows to $300.

Happy Dollars: lots of happy feelings this week, no complaints!

Note from Club Secretary: If you receive your weekly Kiwanis Newsletter by mail, have email and web access available to you, and would like to save your club over $20 per year in postage, please contact me to switch to electronic delivery.

The Show:

Ed Pulliam agreed to speak about himself as part of our "Know Your Kiwanian" series. [Speaking about himself is Ed's favorite topic].

Ed was born in Kansas, "... where the buffalo roam ...". When he was a teenager, he found his first job working in a small movie theater and eventually became the manager. After college his first job was also managing a large 4 screen theater in Lansing, Michigan.

Ed told us he moved on after a few years to Janesville, because he was chosen to manage the new Janesville Mall. He continued working in that position for 27 years, and he learned a lot about roof leaks in that time.

Ed retired from that position, and he now works in the field of commercial real estate, which involves leasing space in office buildings and shopping centers. Also, he has a small computer software development business.

Ed's been active in city governance: 3 term member of the City Council, served on the City Library and Forward Janesville Boards.

Ed has been a Kiwanis member 28 years and he enjoys the opportunity to be of service in our community. Ed and his wife live on South Harmony Dr.

Next week's program – Marie Bilek, Mercy Hospital Volunteer Coordinator who coordinates the work of the Mercy Health System Association of Volunteers. We have many members who have volunteered their time and work to this organization.

Thanks to David Calverley for taking the notes, and Don Chapin for the photos. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
