HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES

* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

May 1, 2008, Vol. XXVI, No.31

Beloit Police and Fire Chaplaincy Program

Attendance: 26 (23 members, 2 students, 1 speaker)

Students of the Month: Today we had two students from Craig High School; Aundrea Radunzel and Josh Pickering.

Announcements: It is that time of year when we have to hold elections for the upcoming administrative year which begins in October.

We currently have 3 openings on the Board of Directors, and one very important opening for President Elect. Please give this some serious thought, not only for your club, but for your community.

Mother's Day Breakfast is this Saturday morning at the Elk's Club, please come to help by 7:30 am. Great event, you won't want to miss it.

Fest of Ale: the date is set for Saturday November 8th, at Holiday Inn Express. If you would like to help with this committee for what is now our largest fundraiser, please let Dave O' Leary or Eric Scherdell know.

Pancake Day: by now all money should be in, if you are sitting on any checks or still need to collect some please get this done ASAP as the committee would like to wrap up another successful year.

Kiwanis Scholarships: If any of you have children or grandchildren graduating from Craig or Parker high school this year please contact Dr. Kevin O' Leary regarding scholarships available.

50/50 rolls on..... Dave Fleig drew the 5 of diamonds. $362.00 in the pot, and only 25 cards in the deck!

Happy Dollars:

-Jim McMullen was happy to be back, not yet completely recovered from his broken leg but getting there!

-Michelle Zimmerman was also happy to be back after another busy tax season.

-Kevin O was happy to see Jim, and noted that he had seen Jim earlier on the day he broke his leg.

-Harvey Miller noted that after Jim broke his leg he still made sure someone covered for him for Meals On Wheels.

Program:

Reverend Bill Wagner spoke today as a police and fire chaplain from the Beloit Police and Fire depts.

Rev. Bill talked about the duties, training, and tribulations of this program which Beloit has had since 1980.

Bill is the head of the program and is one of 7 chaplains the departments have. Among their duties are assisting with death notifications; calling on injured officers or firefighters; dedications of buildings or memorials; and assisting with the spiritual needs of prisoners (though Rock Co. has its own jail ministry).

Rev. Bill also happens to be the president elect of the Beloit Noon Kiwanis Club.

Thanks to Dr. Jim Damrow for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
