Andrea Zimmerman and Andrea Kruser, both Andreas were guests of membership co-chair and next year's president-elect Jayme Roth. Hint to all – our membership committee is serious about membership retention and growth, and plans to lead by example. Please bring a guest to a meeting. "Share your K".

Coop had a buck for the false alarm regarding the failing of the Indian Ford damn.

Our golf outing is next Thursday the 26th at Glen Erin.

There will be a roundtable at noon at the Elks club for the non-golfers.

George Mark is 77 years young today. We had songs today as Brian Hansen was in the house.

Ace pot drawing:

Jim McMullen draws the 10 of spades and the pot rolls over. There will be no drawing next week, due to the Golf Outing and Roundtable. On July 3rd, the pot will start at $494.00, with only 18 cards remaining!

James Flarity was in the house today from the AARP office in Madison to discuss their new program called Divided We Fail.

AARP has 39 million members which they surveyed to find out what the most important issues were to them.

Happy Dollars:

Jimmy Mac had a couple of bucks today, one for Jayme Roth being selected as a special volunteer and a thank you from the folks at Kandu for the drivers who took them to the air show.

That survey resulted in www.dividedwefail.org, a web site you can go to find out where candidates stand on the issues of health care and retirement.

The Wi-man had a buck for his daughters 13th birthday falling on the same date as George Mark turning 77.

AARP plans on holding the candidates "feet to the fire" when it comes to making promises during the campaign only to not follow thru once in office.
