Online sign up for the Banquet can be accomplished on the club's website

Steak Fry is temporarily on hold, due to a conflict on the date

The Drawing:

Randy Borman drew a card which was not the Ace of Hearts – Pot lives

Happy Dollars:

Ed Pulliam – Happy to find one of two lost checkbooks amidst memory lapses

George Mark – Somehow related a song Brian chose to Ben Coopman "Soaked in Brine" & "Salty Ben Coopman" ??

Dave Wimann – Happy to be able to ride in his homecoming parade as an Honored Alumni

George mark – had another dollar but I was still trying to make the connection on his first so I missed it

Program:

Today's program was presented by Dave Nitzke of the Wisconsin Elks Association. The Wisconsin Elks Association sponsors a Drug Awareness Trailer which is moved to different locations to promote drug awareness.

During a National Night Out program, 1600 people visited the Trailer and picked up drug awareness literature which is produced by Elks National Foundation.

Drugs continue to be a problem but in many different ways. One example was that Teenagers and young adults are now using prescription drugs found in parent's medicine cabinets.

Hopefully we will see the Drug Awareness Trailer at some of our functions in Janesville in the near future.

Thanks to Jim Holmstrom for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
