HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES

* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

November 6, 2008, Vol. XXVII, No.5

Janesville PD: How to help prevent crime

Guests: None

Students: Steve Hudy and Catie O'Leary from Parker High School.

(Secretary's note: Dave Wimann has gotten to the bottom of the problem with us having no Craig students of the month. It has been a communication problem between the club and the school. It has been resolved, and we look forward to our Craig students joining us soon.)

Announcements:

Fest of Ale is Saturday the 8th of November; ticket sales appear to be down by about 200. If you have money or tickets please get them back to Tom Waller at Edward Jones his email is Thomas.Waller@edwardjones.com If you have signed up to work you should be at the Holiday Inn Convention Center by 5:30pm Saturday night, or you may show up at 9:00am that day and help set up the room and work the whole day!!

We need a coordinator for the Tour of Lights as Bob Elliot is not doing it this year but will guide you thru the process.

Salvation Army Bell Ringing will be coming up on December 12th. Sign up coming soon.

Ace pot drawing:

Dale Henning draws the ACE of clubs and the pot rolls over.

Happy Dollars:

District Attorney David O'Leary was happy the election is over and that he beat out the write in candidates like Mickey and Goofy. Also happy that his God Daughter Catie O'Leary as well as his cousin Kellie Morris were in the house today.

Irene Stewart was happy the election is over and the phone will stop ringing with calls to vote for various candidates.

Andy was happy all the folks he voted for got elected.

The Show:

Officer Chad Sullivan and Crime Prevention/Neighborhood Watch coordinator Kellie Morris were in the house today to talk with us about personal safety and how to avoid being the victim of a crime. We cannot control a criminal's ability or desire to commit a crime but we can limit their opportunity by being diligent in protecting ourselves. Lock your doors, use deadbolts and park your car in the garage. Lock your car while it is in the garage and don't leave your keys in the ignition. If something just doesn't feel right trust your instincts and call the police, if someone seems out of place in your neighborhood or appears strange trust your instincts and call the police. Finally Chad suggests that we are often times to friendly when a stranger approaches us or comes to our door; be skeptical and pay attention, if it doesn't feel right then walk away or shut the door. Above all do not give out your personal information to anyone especially over the internet; this is referred to as the "Dr. O'Leary Rule" per his brother David.

Thanks to Dave Fleig for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
