* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

January 15, 2009, Vol. XXVII, No. 13

Forward Janesville, Inc. / United Health Insurance Program

Students:

School was out, due to the cold, But Dan Wimann, from Craig joined us.

Announcements:

Christmas Party January 22, call Irene Stewart if interested – 756-4412.

For those unable to make the Social, there will be a Round Table at the Elks, at noon.

Meals on Wheels Sign up going around, we have weeks of Feb 9 and 16.

Board of Directors will now meet the 3rd Thursday of the month after regular meeting.

Newsletter writers are needed, many hands make light work. Takes about 15-20 minutes 8-10 times a year. Contact Fleig if interested.

Ace pot drawing:

George Mark takes out the King of Diamonds.

The pot grows to $226.00, and there are only 34 cards left in the deck.

Happy Dollars:

Laurie Huml-Eckert will be serving up wine at Kandu/Best Events wine tasting January 29th from 6-9pm.

Ben was happy for Sunshine.

George happy that Dale unloaded the Cemetery onto the City

Jamie has raffle tickets for the Madison Auto Show, proceeds go for Hospice.

Randy has another grand child, this makes 4.

Rob Terry happy for great employee Dan Wimann.

The Show:

Bill Boyd from Boyd Insurance was in the house today representing Forward Janesville, Inc.

He has been working on an Insurance program with United Health to put together an insurance package for all Forward Janesville Members with at least two employees. This leaves George Mark out in the cold.

The program is sold thru insurance agent members of Forward Janesville and has numerous options for wellness programs.

They use all the healthcare providers in the area, so if you are a member of Forward Janesville and provide health insurance for your employees you should check it out.

Contact your insurance man or woman or FJI directly for information.
