Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

April 16, 2009, Vol. XXVII, No. 26

Board Meeting is our Program

Announcements: In case you weren't aware, PANCAKE DAY IS THIS SATURDAY!!! We could still use some help both setting up Friday from 3:30 to 6:00, and on both shifts Saturday, but especially the second shift which runs from 10:30 to clean up at 2:00. You can sign up online at our website, remember your password and id (hint: 1child, 1community), and you will see the schedule and where you are needed.

ANY QUESTIONS please call Jim Damrow at 754-3696.

Scholarships are available for the community, if you have an eligible high school senior in your family please let Dr. Kevin O'Leary know very soon.

Mother's Day Breakfast is fast approaching, just two short weeks after Pancake Day. Please be aware that we will be needing help with workers that morning, make yourself available for this much anticipated annual event.

Guests: Julie Winger of the Red Wing, MN Noon Kiwanis was a guest today, and brought with her prospective member Chris Feggestad who works with her company that is setting up a new computer consulting business in Janesville.

Dave Nelson was a guest of Dr. O'Leary, Dave is the entertainment for our upcoming Mother's Day Breakfast on May 9.

Dana Zimmerman was the cute little guest of her mother, Michele.

Lt. Gov. Marcia Lee was also with us today.

Happy Dollars:

Rob Terry wished Merlin Kanter a happy birthday after hearing it on the radio.

Marcia Lee announced that she just celebrated big birthday number 75!

George Mark was happy to see guest Chris Feggestad, remembering that he built his parent's house.

Jim McMullen was not happy to miss Pancake Day this weekend, but he'll get over it since he will be in Mexico, the poor guy.

Program:

Today was a very productive club meeting, where minutes of the last few board meetings were reviewed and finances summarized. Much discussion about committee chairmanships and structure took place, with the need for proper succession emphasized so that once a person agrees to chair a committee, such as Pancake Day or Fest of Ale, they are committing for a year or two but not in perpetuity. 16 year Pancake Day co-chairs Andy Frelich, Jim Damrow and 25 year co-chair Jim Stoa were happy to hear about this.

If you missed the meeting but would like to review the minutes, please contact our club secretary.
