Andy Frelich reports on Kiwanis International Convention

Guests:

Bob Morin, and Bob is being proposed for membership by Kevin O'Leary (Actually, at a brief board meeting held after the club meeting, Bob's membership application was approved).

Announcements:

Irene Stewart reminded us of our Meals On wheels delivery schedule for July 20-25 and July 27-31. Our members have signed up for most of the routes, but in some cases the member is working alone. If you have time to help, please call Irene and volunteer to help, or simply be at the Mercy Hospital pick up point on any day you can help.

Lauri Huml Eckert reported that Jim McMullen broke his other leg this week. More information will be available next week.

Happy Dollars:

The Happy Dollar Box had only one dollar in it. If I remember correctly, it was Andy for going to another International Convention and staying out of jail.

Ace of Hearts:

Nancy Verhoeven had the winning ticket, but the winning Ace eluded her!

Program:

Our program was a report by Andy Frelich on this year's Kiwanis International Convention, June 25-29, in Nashville.

Andy reported that a few changes in procedures were approved by the delegates, and the main one is that local clubs can now decide if they pay the annual insurance premium from their administrative or service fund.

Kiwanian at Exhibit Hall at Nashville Convention shows off club hat with Kiwanis slogan and club's web address.

The delegates elected Paul Palazzolo to be the Kiwanis International President for 2009-2010. Mr. Palazzolo lives in Springfield, IL, and he is employed as the County Auditor for Sangamon County, IL. The President Elect is Sylvester Neal from Auburn Washington, and he is a retired Fire Marshall for the State of Alaska.

Andy reported that the Kiwanis International Board of Directors is accepting proposals for a new world-wide service project. We will submit our Club's SOS Project, because it would benefit children everywhere. Andy reported another Kiwanis Club is also submitting this same SOS project, so the feeling is, the more that propose it, the better are the chances of it being chosen.

Something to laugh about: "If you can smile when things go wrong, you have someone in mind to blame."

Thanks to David Calverley for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.
