HUMAN & SPIRITUAL VALUES

* OPEN ****

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

September 24, 2009, Vol. XXVII, No. 48

FAREWELL TO THE ELKS CLUB

For Kiwanis, today was the last meeting at the Elk's, which has been a great host to us for much of the past 30 years, give or take. Though there was a tinge of sadness in the air, there is also excitement as starting October 1 (this week!) we will be meeting at the Armory for our regular meetings, now held every 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month. Please make it a priority to be at our meetings, where we will bring the fun and camaraderie back as well as continue to have great programs.

Lunch at the Armory is $10.50 and you are only billed for the lunches you consume. You will continue to be billed quarterly for meals, you don't have to pay the day of the meeting. If you haven't had a chance to eat at the Armory yet, you will love it.

There is a sign up sheet to be the official greeter for a given week. There are some openings left this year but the response was good. Please consider taking your turn at this.

Happy Dollars: Harvey Miller was happy that his wife Dee is doing well after knee replacement surgery. Jim McMullen is hoping to be happy later this week as he is hoping to get a boot on his mending leg instead of a cast.

Announcements: Kiwanis has been invited to have a booth at the huge Business and Marketing Expo on October 22. We can tell about Kiwanis AND sell Fest of Ale tickets at this booth. Help is needed in 1 hour shifts, at set up between 8 and 10, and the 6 pm shift followed by clean up. The Expo is a joint event this year with Janesville and other Rock Co. chambers, and will be held at the former LSI building, the Helgesen Business Center, on Hwy 11 and County G.

Installation dinner will be held October 7th at the Country Club. A sign up sheet will be available at this weeks meeting.

The AKTION club of Janesville has been recognized for being one of the largest AKTION clubs in the country. In October they will be having a Toys for Tots drive, and they are looking for business that can feature a drop container for them. Please talk to Jim McMullen about this.

Fest of Ale worker sign ups are started and tickets are available. Andy has tickets.

Dave Wimann announced that the Craig Key Club has 45 paid members already, with 10 more applications and 5 more possible members. Great start to the year with 4 projects underway!

Program: Angela Rhodes, the new Executive Director of the Rock County Humane Society reported to us after 7 months on the job. She reminded us that the society is privately funded through memberships and contracts with local municipalities, no tax dollars.

Her goal as new executive director is to re-connect with the community and build the volunteer network. Intake of pets is actually down this year, but so are donations.

On Sunday October 4 there is the 18th annual Cause For The Paws 1 or 2 mile dog walk fundraiser, at Palmer Park. $25 entry fee includes t-shirt.

Check out rockcountyhumanesociety for more information.

Thanks to Dr. Jim Damrow for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janesvillekiwanis.org.
