Thanks to Laurie Huml Eckert for taking the notes. Members having information for future newsletters can email editor@janessvillekiwanis.org.

Program:

Guests:

Leah Nell Adams, Guest of Jim McMullin. She is director of the local Jr. Achievement chapter. Eric West, guest of Heather Walz, who, along with Heather provided our program.

Students:

None

Announcements:

Jim McMullin said that Jennifer Wagner has been having trouble making contact with the K-Kids Faculty Advisors. No Teacher Contract may be a problem going forward.

Irene and Andy announced that Kiwanis Appreciation Night picnic and steak fry will be Thursday July 22, beginning at 5:30 PM at Camp Rotamer. Spouses and/or significant others are welcome.

Happy Dollars:

Dave Calverley was happy to have attended his son's wedding. Andy Frelich was also happy to have attended. Jim McMullin was excited about the Jamaican event at KANDU. Laurie Humel Eckert was happy that Jim McMullin has agreed to be nominated as President Elect

50-50 Drawing:

Sorry, the notes I have don't reflect who had the winning ticket, but they didn't draw the winning card.

Heather Walz and Eric West presented the program on the services provided to local youth by the Janesville Boys and Girls club.

At the end of their program about the local operation of the club, Heather presented a few slides and comments from a presentation she attended with the Kiwanis International President, regarding the new partnership between Kiwanis International and Kiwanis.

Schedule for upcoming shows at our meetings per Rob Terry is:

June 17th Rod Jones & Mark Dweyer (Rotary Gardens)
July 1st Kelsey Burton American Red Cross, (Preparing for a Natural Disaster)
July 15th Terry Huber (Farmer's Market)
August 5th David & Mary Olson from Pork Industry
